1:30pm – 4:30pm

Tempe Public Library
3500 South Rural Road, Tempe
Connections Program Room
(Next to Connections Café)

Testifying in court is unlike any other form of communication. Learn the ins and outs of testifying in Juvenile court. Participants will learn the rules of testifying in court, how to prepare for direct and cross examination, and how to answer questions effectively in court.

Vernon Harris, JD is a Unit Chief Counsel in the Protective Service section of the Arizona Attorney General Office. He trains new attorneys and DCS case managers as well as handle high profile cases throughout the state of Arizona.

The workshop will address competencies required for ITMHCA Endorsement for Culturally Sensitive, Relationship Focused Practice Promoting Infant Mental Health.

The cost is $40.00 for ITMHCA members; $50.00 for non-members.
Seating is limited

Preregistration required at www.itmhca.org
