Presents

Feeding: Development & Supports for Families

Nicole Rambeau, MOTR/L

Friday November 4th, 2022

9:00AM – 12:00PM^(PST)

Virtual

This presentation will cover developmental milestones for feeding, when feeding skills present a problem, and a series of strategies for families depending on the concern or severity of feeding difficulties. This training will address competencies required for ITMHCA Endorsement for Culturally Sensitive, Relationship Focused Practice Promoting Infant Mental Health.

Nicole Rambeau is a pediatric occupational therapist working in an early intervention setting on the Navajo Nation. She is employed by Northern Arizona University as part of the Growing In Beauty Partnership Program. She specializes in sensory processing and self-feeding skills for toddlers.

The cost is $40 for members & $55 for non-member
